Counting the Days until School's Out for Summer ?

Others are Counting the Days until School Starts.

The Christian Activity Center in East St. Louis together with Three Rivers Baptist Association (that's you!) are accepting donations for school uniforms.

Uniforms are a school policy for the safety of the kids in East St. Louis.

With a median household income of $21,324, these families need our help!

We can help provide a safe environment for learning and help the parents keep food on the table.

$7 buys a uniform
