Excerpt from a letter from Sue Strekal in Slovakia:

It is exciting to see how the Lord is working here in Slovakia. I have had opportunity to talk w/ my students about my faith and read the Bible and pray w/ some of them. Many of my students are unchurched, but they do go to church every Thursday and have "religion classes." It is encouraging to have staff mtgs. that begin w/ prayer. Keep our school Jana Amosa Gymnazium in your prayers.

I also would like to thank the association for the early birthday present-- what a lovely surprise!! And receiving all the birthday cards was such a sweet gesture!!! Thank you to everyone who participated.

Thanks to everyone who has been praying for me while I am in Slovakia; this is such a beautiful but spiritually needy country. Please keep the youth of this country in prayer-- they are caught up in materialism just as is common in other countries. Another prayer need is for Christians here to be committed to their faith and to make it a priority.

Love,
Sue
